SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Please help us comply with the federal requirement mandating the annual submission of Program Eligibility Application . This application will be used only for eligibility determination, placed in our files and treated as confidential information. In order for participants and the Sponsor/site to be considered eligible for program benefits, an adult household member must complete the Program Eligibility Application for each household enrolled in the site as soon as possible, sign, date and return it to the Sponsor. Completion of the application is not mandatory unless you wish to be considered for eligibility as a free or reduced price participant.

If you currently receive food stamps, Temporary Aid to Needy Families (TANF) or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR), you are not required to list household income. You may give your food stamp, TANF or FDPIR case number, sign, date and return the application. Foster children categorically eligible SFSP benefits.

You should list the name of everyone who lives in your household, including all children, parents, grandparents and other relatives. The Department of Agriculture defines a household as a group of related or unrelated individuals (not residents of an institution or boarding house) who are living as one economic unit (i.e. sharing living expenses).

The income which you report must be the total gross income, before deductions, received by all members of your household last month (i.e. wages, welfare or retirement etc). Military benefits received in cash, such as housing allowance for military households living off base and food or clothing allowance must be considered as income. If you have a household member for whom last month's income was higher or lower than usual, list that person's expected average monthly income. If your household's income is equal to or less than the amounts indicated for your household's size on the chart below, the participant and the day care center will be eligible for program benefits.

You may submit a program eligibility application any time during the fiscal year. If you aren't eligible now but have an increase in household size, become unemployed or have a decrease in income causes your household's total income to be within the eligibility standards on the chart above, you may reapply for program benefits. The information on the application may be verified by the institution's eligibility official at any time during the fiscal year.

In accordance with the Reauthorization Act, households are no longer required to report changes in circumstances, such as an increase in income (currently $50 per month, or $600 annually), a decrease in household size or when the household is no longer certified eligible for food stamps or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families. Therefore, once properly approved for free or reduced price benefits, a household will remain eligible for those benefits for a period not to exceed 12 months.

Privacy Act Statement: The Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act requires the information on this application. You do not have to give the information, but if you do not, we cannot approve your child for free or reduced price meals. You must include the social security number of the adult household member who signs the application. The social security number is not required when you apply on behalf of a foster child or you list a Food Stamp, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Program or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) case number for your child or other (FDPIR) identifier or when you indicate that the adult household member signing the application does not have a social security number. We will use your information to determine if your child is eligible for free or reduced price meals, and for administration and enforcement of the Program.
