MEMORANDUM

TO: Sponsors Participating in the Summer Food Service Program

FROM: Cynthia Ervin, MBA
SFSP Coordinator, Special Nutrition Programs

SUBJECT: School Dismissals for H1N1 Outbreaks: Questions and Answers Edition #2

As stated in Policy Memorandum, SFSP 09-11, school food authorities (SFAs) and community organizations may offer reimbursable meals to children enrolled in schools that are dismissed as a result of a public health emergency related to an H1N1 outbreak. This memorandum addresses questions that FNS received during and following the August 25, 2009, webinar, Providing Meals to Needy Children During an H1N1-Related School Dismissal. Questions answered in the memorandum SFSP 09-11 are included in this memorandum. No changes were made to previously issued questions and answers. Please review the questions and answers provided in this memorandum.

For North Carolina’s specific information related to the H1N1 virus, go to the Nutrition Branch website at www.nutritionnc.com or the Division of Public Health website at <http://www.ncpublichealth.com>.

You may contact me at 919-707-5774 if you have questions.
